Introduction

Every position within an organization has a unique culture which may or may not be similar to the overall organizational culture. The TTI Success Insights Job Energizing People Profile is designed to provide an overview of both the motivators for the job and the organizational culture. This will allow an organization to determine the type of individual that would be most successful in a given position. When incumbents share these motivations, job satisfaction, performance and retention increase dramatically.

As you read through this report, remember to think of the job, not the person!

Organizational Rewards/Culture Hierarchy

This section identifies the rewards/culture system of a specific organization. Matching a person's passion to an organization that rewards that passion always enhances performance. The graphs below are in descending order from the highest rewards/culture required by the organization to the lowest.

1. Utilitarian/Economic - Rewards those who value practical accomplishments, results and rewards for their investments of time, resources and energy.

2. Theoretical - Rewards those who value knowledge for knowledge's sake, continuing education and intellectual growth.

3. Individualistic/Political - Rewards those who value personal recognition, freedom, and control over their own destiny and others.

4. Aesthetic - Rewards those who value balance in their lives, creative self-expression, beauty and nature.

5. Traditional/Regulatory - Rewards those who value traditions inherent in social structure, rules, regulations and principles.

6. Social - Rewards those who value opportunities to be of service to others and contribute to the progress and well being of society.
